

What are you reporting? (Select all that apply)

- Materials Challenge (books, movies, magazines, digital content)
- Internet-Related Challenge (filtering, access, use policies)
- Library Service (meeting rooms, programs, displays, exhibits, author visits)
- Patron Privacy or Confidentiality Issue (circ. records, PII)
- Hate Crime (defacement of library property to target a specific group; use of swastikas or other symbols of intimidation)
- Threats or Harassment to Staff (online, by phone, by email, or in-person)
- Legislative Concerns (including executive orders and A.G. opinions)
- Other (including 1st Amendment audits and student publications)

What materials were challenged? Please list the titles and authors of any books, graphic novels, films, or sound recordings challenged.

Please describe the incident.

When did this happen? Exact dates are helpful, but general dates are fine as well.

Who challenged the material or raised the issue? If it is known, please indicate if the challenger was acting alone or as part of a group.

What specific concerns prompted the challenge? Please describe the language or terms used by the challenger to express their issues. We are interested in understanding the nature of the challenge, such as concerns related to profanity, sexual references, LGBTQIA+ or EDI content, political or religious viewpoints, or any other specific aspect.

Provide the outcome of the challenge, if known.

What type of library did the challenge occur at?

- School
- Public
- Academic
- Museum or Special Collections
- Other

Where did this happen? Please provide the name of the library, school, etc. where the incident took place, if you're comfortable doing so.

ZIP code of where the challenge took place:

Do you want this report to be kept private? We will always protect the confidentiality of those who submit reports to us. If you indicate your report is private, we will not disclose identifying information in our public reports.

- Yes
- No

Personal email address Please provide a personal email address to protect the confidentiality of our communications

Would you like support from the state library association intellectual freedom committee?

- Yes
- No

Would you like support from ALA's Office of Intellectual Freedom?

- Yes
- No

Did you report this challenge to the American Library Association's Office of Intellectual Freedom?

- Yes
- No

Did you report this challenge to any other organizations (school library association, library board, other governing bodies, etc.)

Please share any additional information related to this matter.

.